ing at the Christian Church, continued for two weeks largely attended and resulted in a large number of conversions to the church. Gilbert's discourses were effective and forcible, and he was heartily welcomed when he returns to Frank-tion train will be run from the Louisville Exposition next. The train will pass the city about 8:30 o'clock and arrive at the Exposition at 12 o'clock. M. will leave Louisville at 1:30. The fare from this city, including admission to the Exposition, will be $1.25 for the round trip.

Mr. Geo. W. Gayle has established a shop for repair of watches, jewelry, etc., in the grocery of Mr. J. M. Todd, at the corner of Main and Ash streets, where it will be found in future ready to wait upon his friends who desire anything in his line. His son, Mr. Clarence Gayle, will have charge of his South Frankfort shop, and all work left there will receive prompt attention.

RHEA AS "YVONNE."

A Superior Performance Before a Large Audience.

The following is clipped from the Bradford Era:

Despite the insufferable heat which has kept many at home, a large and fashionable audience braved the discomforts of a crowded assemblage in order to see Rhea in a new play last evening, the opening of the dramatic season at the Opera House. The charming and gifted actress had no reason to complain of her reception, which from her initial entry until the curtain fell, was the stage for the last time, was of the heartiest description. Stimulated by such encouragement as Rhea has met with in a new play almost untried play, she kept her audience closely in hand, and the result could hardly help proving equally satisfactory to both artist and audience. "Yvonne" is a highly emotional drama, and when this is said there is little more to be added concerning Rhea's fitness to assume the leading part. The action of the play turns upon the heroism and self-sacrifice of "Yvonne," who, in order to save her haughty and arrogant sister from the wrath of a suspicious husband, bears the weight of disgrace upon her own shoulders, is strangled, cast in prison for suspected robbery, is adopted by a philanthropic American doctor and finally returns to her home completely vindicated to the admiration of her treacherous relative, who meets with a violent death at the hands of a former lover who believed her to have been his ruin. The plot is indeed the most startling character while a motive is elevating. The nobility and high spirit of the greatly wronged heroine are tempered with the most fascinating femininity, of which were portrayed by Rhea with wonderful power. To many, one of the most pleasing attractions of the piece, and from her winning presence which always provokes admiration, is the exquisite modulation of her voice which is heightened by her French accent. Undoubtedly this new play has in it the elements of great success and will endure the crucial test of laborious criticism. The support appears to have been selected with care. —Williamport Era

The hop and supper given by the A. D. Club at Weitzel's hall Tuesday evening was a delightful affair. Solder's Band furnished the music.

J. G. HATCHETT, P. M.

Cedar Run.

Born.—Sept. 20, to Alfred Comley and wife, a daughter.

Avery Morris, of Clifton, was down Saturday and Sunday.

W. A. Moore bought a forty dollar cow in Anderson county.

Martin Roberts is building a neat cottage house near S. E. Dunlap's.

Mrs. Lizzie Johnson has been quite ill for several days but is improving.

Meers, Jeff. Minor, James Morris and Dan Payne are all sinking well.

James Flynn has a contract for hauling oak timber to J. M. Wakefield.

Mrs. James Flynn has returned home from a week's visit to relatives in Louisville.

Mrs. Lucian Morris is visiting her father, Marshal Dickerson, in Owen county.

Joe Parent is erecting a large tobacco barn. Joe says he has a fine crop of the filthy weed.

Mrs. Dillon's little son and daughter have been quite sick, but are improving at this writing.

Mrs. Annie Cardwell has returned home from a short visit to Mrs. Job Smith at Bloomington.

James A. Moore and Mary Thompson are attending school at Greenwood Female Seminary.

W. H. Parks of Buckner's Station, Oldham county, spent a few days the first of the week with Still Smiley.

Died.—September 17th, little infant daughter of John Ellis. The remains were buried on the 18th at W. A. Moore's.

Mrs. W. A. Moore and son, Bud, made a short visit to Louisville last week to see S. P. Moore, and took in the exposition.

On Monday night the young folks met at Mr. Smiley's and enjoyed the fantastic toe till a late hour. All say it was a perfect success.

Misses Jessie McAllister, of Shelbyville, Mary and Maggie Entwistle, of Clifton, are visiting Mrs. Still Smiley. Miss Mary Entwistle left Wednesday for Louisville and Brandenburg to visit relatives.

Well the boss tobacco boys are done cutting and have filled the commodious barn and all of the vacant houses on the farm with tobacco, and yet they look sad. It is thought they both have a severe attack of heart disease.

Q. CUMBER.

There will be a grand pony race on Col. R. P. Pepper's track at the old Fair Grounds this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Thos. X. O'Connor to W. A. Gaines & Co., No. 4 (night).

What C & S Means.

Not Crutcher & Starks, the clothiers on Main street, but Crutcher & Stephens, the meat merchants on Broadway, where you can find constantly on hand and for sale at low prices the following list of good, tender, juicy meats: Round steaks, loin steak, porter-house steak, round steak, rib steak, chuck steak, shoulder steak, flank steak, and mutton, lamb, pork and short stakes and chops in endless variety and a roast of any denomination, all or any of which can be had on application to J. Watt Stephens, at the store, 403 Broadway street. Just think of a short roast baked with sweet potatoes and a hot biscuit made of J. E. M. or L. F. C. flour.

A Startling Discovery.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Huron, Dak., writes that his wife had been troubled with acute Bronchitis for many years, and that all remedies tried gave no permanent relief, until he procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, which had a magical effect, and produced a permanent cure. It is guaranteed to cure all Diseases of Throat, Lungs, or Bronchial Tubes. Trial Bottles Free at Jos. LeCompte's Drug Store. Large Size $1.00.

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 27, 1884.

Frank Howard, the great composer, is with Thatcher, Primrose & West's Minstrels.

Dr. Daniel Gober has removed his office to the Weitzel building on St. Clair street. See his card.

Thatcher, Primrose & West's, the largest minstrel company in the world, will visit Frankfort October 1st.

Miss Hallie Hendon is having erected another store-room on Second street, adjoining the store of Messrs. J. W. Johnson & Co.

The Active Base Ball nine, of this city, went to Versailles Tuesday afternoon and defeated the club at that place by a score of 8 to 5.

The east bound C. & O. train which passes through this city at 9 o'clock at night, will hereafter carry mail from this city to Mt. Sterling.

Wood Haley and Weston Brothers, the greatest musical team in the United States will appear in Thatcher, Primrose & West's Minstrels.

The great burlesque on Fedora, entitled "Mad Fed O", is one of the funniest pieces ever put on the stage. Will be produced in Thatcher, Primrose & West's Minstrels at Opera House October 1st.

W. B. Comer, contractor on the Lexington water works, who is charged with the murder of the convict O'Brien, had his examining trial Tuesday, and was held over to the Circuit Court in $3,000 bond.

Mr. Sidney S. Bush, of this city, has formed a partnership in the drug business with Mr. J. T. Cook, who formerly clerked for Dr. W. H. Averill in this city, at Harrodsburg, and will remove to that place to reside the first of October.

Thatcher, Primrose & West's Minstrels will appear at the Opera House on Wednesday evening, October 1st. They are the largest and one of the best minstrel companies on the road, and if you want a good seat secure it in time, as there will be a crowded house.

Attention is called to the card of Mr. Chas. F. Lang, who bought out Messrs. S. F. & O. T. R. H. Lang, in this issue. Mr. Lang is a good business man, a clever gentleman, and will deal fairly and honorably with all who may favor him with their patronage. Call and see him.

Mr. Chas. O. Reynolds, of Lexington, and Miss Josie M. DeLine, daughter of Mr. L. A. DeLine, of Spring Hill, were married Tuesday at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. E. A. Penick, of the Episcopal Church, in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

George Anderson Brown and Chas. Straws, half brothers and both colored, had a difficulty on Sunday afternoon, down in Caw, about the ownership of a pistol, which resulted in the former shooting the latter in the left breast, inflicting a dangerous if not fatal wound. Brown surrendered himself to an officer and was placed in jail. His examining trial will take place this morning.

The new Colored Public School building at the east end of Clinton street is rapidly approaching completion and will be ready for occupancy about the middle of October. The building is a handsome three-story edifice, with twelve rooms in it, very similar in style of architecture to the White School building, and is quite an ornament to that part of the city. The walls will not be plastered but caliche, the ceilings plastered and the floors decked so as to prevent noise from above disturbing those below. The grounds are being graded off and will be sodded, so that when completed the colored people will have a school building and grounds that will compare favorably with any in the State.

Latest styles of children's and ladies' felt hats just received at Ferguson & Albritton's.

Get your watches, clocks and jewelry repaired at F. M. Wayne's, 106 St. Clair street. You will save 50 per cent. if.

Mr. Darsie preaches his eighth anniversary sermon at the Christian Church to-morrow morning. In the afternoon he leaves for Hardinsville where he will hold a protracted meeting lasting a couple of weeks.

The bids for constructing water works in this city were opened yesterday and the following persons were found to be the lowest bidders: For laying pipe, Mr. Gole, of Bellefontaine, Ohio. Reservoir, Mr. Sulder, of Ohio. Pumping Station, Thos. P. Shanks, of Louisville.

A large number of persons went from this city to Louisville Thursday morning, attended the Exposition and returned on the late train at night. Many persons are waiting for an excursion train before they attend the Exposition, not caring to stay longer than one day, and the L. & N. Road could be certain of a large crowd from this city should they put one on.

Personal.

Mr. William Hoffer, of Shreveport, La., who has been visiting relatives in this city for several weeks, left Tuesday for a visit to relatives in Ohio, accompanied by his nephew, Mr. Jas. W. Hoffer, of this city.

MARRIED.

In this city, on September 26th, 1884, by Rev. J. M. Law, Mr. J. M. Price and Miss MABELA BALLOW, all of Anderson county.

DIED.

In this city, on Saturday, September 26, 1884, Mary Thompson, infant daughter of W. T. and Mamie W. Runyan, aged 7 months.

(For the Roundabout.)

In memory of little Mary Greenwood Runyan.

Put away all the phantasies,
The cradle, the carriage and toy,
For now the eyes that have left us
And saddened all our joys
She used to swing in her hammock,
The fairest, daintiest thing
That ever blessed a household
With her cooings a baby can bring.
She was always so tiny and fragile,
Such a pore and delicate flower,
We were almost afraid to touch her,
And watched her hour by hour.
But all our watching was useless,
For she faded gently away,
And all we could do, or say, or think
Did not help to make her stay.
For "Our Father" wanted our ones,
He just let us have her awhile,
He waits the fairest and brightest ones
For jewels free from guile.
Our baby will not be lonely
In those famous gardens far,
For many to hold her little hand
Are waiting for her there.
Let the soil cover her gently,
Let the flowers their fragrance fling,
For the very breezes blow softly
And the birds so softly sing.
Let the baby be sweetly sleeping,
A sleep that is calm and long,
Her soul has gone 'bro' the big white gate
And the angels have burst into song.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 27, 1884.

ARREST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

The circus bills now ornament the fences and the small boy is happy.

The use of the shot-gun is becoming alarmingly frequent in this community.

Capt. E. H. Taylor, the newly elected Warden of the Penitentiary, came up Monday and took charge of that institution.

Monday is the Jewish atonement day and our citizens of the Hebrew faith will close their business houses on that day.

The Spring 1884 Gun Club were handsomely entertained by Col. R. P. Pepper at his residence on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Walter Franklin has invented and patented an adjustable lap curtain and wheel screen for use on buggies, Jersey wagons, etc.

Rev. Dr. H. H. Mauley, of Louisville, will preach at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and at night at 7 o'clock.

Go to Weitzel & O'Donnell's and get a handsome present with every dollar's worth of goods.

Rev. G. C. Kelly, the pastor of the Methodist Church, has arrived in the city with his family and will preach to his congregations to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours.

5 pieces of lovely glass-ware given away with every purchase of $5.00 at Weitzel & O'Donnell's.

In digging a well for water on a brick yard near Lexington, Mr. G. D. Wilgus struck oil. It is thought the well will yield 20 barrels of oil per day.

No charms given away but something more useful at Weitzel & O'Donnell's.

The chap who gets up the Frankfort personals for the Sunday Courier-Journal must have been in condition to see double last Saturday, for nearly every one of his items were duplicated in Sunday's issue.

Gentlemen, if you desire a neat fitting suit, well made, call and see Berberich.

Squire John Hamilton, of Benson, has sent to this office four splendid apples of the Pippin variety. The four weighed four pounds and a quarter, and each measured fourteen inches in circumference.

If you want a handsome lamp call and see Weitzel & O'Donnell. We give them away to our customers.

All the latest styles of suitings have just been received at Berberich's, call and see them.

The lease of Messrs. C. R. Mason & Co. on the convict labor in the Penitentiary will expire on Wednesday and as yet no bids have been received by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for the labor.

HOPSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

The reputation of Hopstetter's Stomach Bitters as a preventive of epidemic, a stomachic, an invigorant, a general re-solvent, and a specific for fever, indigestion, bilious affections, rheumatism, nervous debility, constitutional weakness, is established upon the sound basis of more than twenty years' experience, and can no more be shaken by the clapnet nostrums of unscrupulous pretensions, than the everlasting hills by the winds that rattle through their defiles.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.
